

The Professional Indemnity insurance you need – arranged online in minutes.

New Zealanders have traditionally paid high premiums for Professional Indemnity (PI) cover. This type of insurance is vital if your business involves consultancy or services that expose you to the risk of a costly claim.

You could also be at risk if there are errors or omissions arising from the advice you provide.

To protect themselves, many professional bodies now require consultants and contractors to take out PI insurance. It's essential cover – but why does it have to cost so much?

Save money on your PI cover at www.gsirect.co.nz.

GSI Direct is New Zealand's online PI insurance provider. By arranging your insurance via the web, we can keep premiums low and provide the cover you need within minutes.
